

NOTIFICATION OF FAIR HOUSING ACT

The Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination in housing because of:

- Race or color
- National origin
- Religion
- Sex
- Familial status (including children under the age of 18 living with parents or legal custodians, pregnant women, and people securing custody of children under 18)
- Handicap
- Military status
- Ancestry

In the sale and rental of housing, no one may take any of the following actions based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, handicap, military status, or ancestry:

- Refuse to rent, sell, or insure housing accommodations or residential property
- Refuse to lend money for the purchase, construction, repair, rehabilitation, or maintenance of housing accommodations or residential property
- Make housing available
- Set different terms, conditions, or privileges for sale or rental of a dwelling
- Print, publish, or circulate any statement or advertisement which would indicate a preference or limitation
- Represent to any person that housing is not available for inspection, sale, rental, or lease
- For profit, persuade owners to sell or rent (blockbusting)
- Deny any person membership in any multiple listing service or real estate broker's organization

What to do if you suspect housing discrimination?

- Make immediate detailed notes of your experience: date, time, place, names of agents or landlords, what you saw and what you were told.
- Contact your local fair housing coordinator for assistance.
