

Sidney Citizens' Police Academy Rules

- No person under the influence of alcohol is permitted to attend.
- No weapons are permitted in the Sidney Police Department building, at outside functions, or any other locations while representing the Sidney Citizens' Police Academy.
- No more than two classes may be missed in order to graduate.
- Dress attire for class: Class polo, comfortable khakis, comfortable shoes
- Dress attire for police ride-along: Class polo, comfortable khakis or slacks, appropriate yet comfortable shoes
- Students will conduct themselves in a manner which will positively represent the Sidney Police Department, and the City of Sidney.
- Students who come under criminal investigations during the program must inform the department, and may be asked to remove themselves until the investigation has concluded.
- Children are not permitted to attend. (If circumstances arise in which they need to attend for one of the classes, please inform the department prior to them coming. You will be responsible for their behavior and conduct, and they must adhere to the same standards as academy students.)
- Please turn all cell phones on silent for class sessions. There will be breaks provided to allow for students to check their messages.
